

I want to express my concern about the proposed deregulation of the broadcast entities in this country. I am a broadcaster of over 30 years, and I was taught that the airwaves belong to the people. It is imperative that you allow the people of this country to be heard on this matter. There has been a major whiteout of these proceedings.